The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XXIIᵈ Year.] THURSDAY, January 22, 1767. [Nº. 1115.]

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

WESTMINSTER, November 11.

THIS Day his Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Knt. Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from his Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt gracious Speech:

"My Lords and Gentlemen,

"THE high Price of Wheat, and the defective Produce of that Grain laſt Harveſt, together with the extraordinary Demands for the ſame from foreign Parts, have principally determined me to call you thus early together, that I might have the Senſe of Parliament, as ſoon as conveniently might be, on a Matter ſo important, and particularly affecting the poorer Sort of my Subjects.

The Urgency of the Neceſſity called upon me, in the mean Time, to exert my Royal Authority for the Preſervation of the Public Safety, againſt a growing Calamity, which could not admit of Delay. I have therefore, by and with the Advice of my Privy-Council, laid an Embargo on Wheat and Wheat Flour going out of the Kingdom, until the Advice of Parliament could be taken thereupon.

"If further Proviſions of Law be requiſite or expedient with regard to the dearneſs of Corn, ſo neceſſary to the Suſtenance of the poorer Sort, they cannot eſcape the Wiſdom of Parliament, to which I recommend the due Conſideration thereof.

"At the ſame Time I muſt with Concern take Notice, that, notwithſtanding my Cares for my People, a Spirit of the moſt daring inſurrection has in divers Parts broke forth in Violences of the moſt Criminal Nature.

"Neceſſary Orders have been given for bringing ſuch dangerous Offenders to condign Puniſhment and ſpeedy Juſtice; nor ſhall Vigilance and Vigour on my Part be wanting, to reſtore Obedience and Reverence to Law and Government.

"I have the Satisfaction to inform you, that, ſince I laſt met you, I have concluded a Treaty of Commerce with my good Siſter the Empreſs of Ruſſia, whereby that conſiderable Branch of Trade is fixed on a juſt and ſatisfactory Footing.

"It is with Pleaſure that I alſo acquaint you that the Marriage between my good Brother the King of Denmark and my Siſter the Princeſs Caroline Matilda has been ſolemnized, and the natural Alliance between the two Crowns happily ſtrengthened by an additional Tye of ſo agreeable a Nature."

"Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

"I have ordered the proper Eſtimates for the current Service of the Year to be laid before you.

"Such Supplies as you may grant ſhall be duly applied with the utmoſt Fidelity, and ſtricteſt Regard to the Objects for which they are granted."

"My Lords and Gentlemen,

"The general Poſture of Affairs in Europe, affords no Occaſion to lay any Thing new before you upon that Head. My Purpoſes are conſtant and fixed to maintain, on my Part, the public Tranquility inviolate; and to ſupport the Dignity of my Crown, and the Rights of my Subjects. The Juſtice and Wiſdom of the other great Powers of Europe, leave no room to apprehend any Intentions of a contrary Nature."

ALGIERS, September 6.

THE Dey has ſignified to the Conſuls of Sweden and Denmark, that they muſt depart, unleſs, within three Days, they make the uſual annual Preſents. The former of theſe Conſuls had deſired a Month to deliberate, and the other fifteen Days, which have been granted. All the Veſſels belonging to the Chriſtian Nations have alſo Orders to leave the Port in 48 Hours; after which it is to be ſhut.

Leghorn, Sept. 29. The Malecontents of Corſica have attempted a-new to ſurpriſe the Fortreſs of San Bonifazzio; but not being able to ſucceed, they ſacked and pillaged all the Country around that City.

Paris, October 13. Two Gentlemen going out a few Days ſince from Marſhal Biron's, who had ordered them to be reconciled, went and fought a Duel in the Place of Louis the XIVth. in broad Day. One of them was dangerouſly wounded, and has accuſed the other of having given him a Thruſt before he had put himſelf in a Poſture of Defence. The Affair is before the Tribunal of the Marſhals of France, but the King's Attorney-General has ordered Informations to be given of what paſſed publicly.

Letters in Manuſcript are handed about here, touching the Affair of the young Fellows of Abbeville, in which the Writer endeavours to diſculpate the young Man who was executed, by aſſuring that a Perſon advanced in Years, out of Revenge and Animoſity, excited him while drunk, to commit the Irregularities which were the Cauſe of his Condemnation. One of theſe Letters is attributed to Mr. de Voltaire, as is alſo that entitled, On the clandeſtine Memorial of Mr. de la Chalotais, in which, it is ſaid, that the Tooth-Pick of that Magiſtrate has procured him Immortality.

Oct. 27. The Modeſte Frigate, of 24 Guns and 70 Men, including Paſſengers, bound from Marſeilles to Cape Francois, was laſt Month burnt in her Paſſage by Lightning; and the Commander, Capt. Jules Gayet, made the following Depoſition on board an Engliſh Veſſel, named the William and Jane.

Sept. 23, 1766. I ſailed from Marſeilles Road for Cape Francois, on the 15th of this Month, from which Day till the 19th, at Ten in the Evening, the Wind was in our Favour, as it conſtantly blew Eaſt, or North-Eaſt. At half an Hour paſt Eleven the Veſſel was ſtruck with Lightning, which beat down moſt of the Perſons on board. Several of the Sailors were ſo much hurt, that they hardly had Strength enough to riſe, but no Lives were loſt; only two Horſes were killed. As ſoon as we were able to diſcover one another through the ſurrounding Cloud, I gave Orders to ſearch over the Veſſel, no Traces of Fire could be found in any Part of it: But we had ſcarcely Time to recover ourſelves, before a ſulphureous Smell preſaged what we had to apprehend. A black Smoke came up from the Hold of the Ship, and increaſed viſibly. There was an immediate Cry for Water, and a great Quantity was poured down. The Smoke ſtill increaſing, I cauſed all the Gunpowder to be thrown overboard as faſt as poſſible. I then ordered the Officers to put out the two Boats, which they did with too much Haſte, and threw themſelves almoſt headlong into them. We opened every Place for the Water to come into the Hold; but all our Efforts were vain; and the Horror of the laſt Night, added to the dreadful Death which preſented itſelf, ſeemed to add Fierceneſs to the Flames which incloſed us. The Fire then reached the Long-boat, and deprived us of the laſt Reſource. The Progreſs of the Flames was very rapid; the Main-maſt fell half burnt, and the whole Stern of the Veſſel was on Fire. The reſt of the Crew and Paſſengers preſſed forward, and held out their Hands to the Shore, which was not far from us; but the Wind was now againſt us. There was no Time to deliberate: We were to periſh in the Flames, or throw ourſelves into the Sea, with the faint Hope of ſaving ourſelves on ſome Pieces of the Wreck. Between Twelve and One the Flames reached us. The People cried, Save yourſelf, Captain, you are yet in Time. We looked about us, and exhorted each other to give Aſſiſtance, while we were climbing from Rope to Rope; and in Proportion as we went from the Fire, we came nearer to the other Element, ſupporting ourſelves on the fallen Maſts and Rigging, which ſerved us as a Float.

Saturday, 20. As the Morning grew lighter, we were able to reckon up five-and-thirty Perſons, myſelf included, and in this terrible Situation we continued for four Days; and Providence, whom I did not ceaſe to implore, was pleaſed to preſerve us to the Number of nineteen. The Children were among the firſt who died; they were followed by thoſe of the Crew, who were leaſt able to undergo the Fatigue, and we who were left had little Hopes of paſſing another Night. Several of the People loſt their Senſes, and aſked me who ſhould be killed firſt to ſerve as Food for the reſt; and one Man aſked very calmly for Money to buy Bread and Meat. Thoſe, who were ſo exhauſted that they could hold no longer to the Maſt, gave us Notice of their Death by the Noiſe of their Fall; and, by the Motion in which they thereby put the Maſt, obliged us all to ſwallow the Salt Water. I encouraged, as well as I could, thoſe who ſtill retained their Senſes; but my Voice and Strength both began to fail me.

The firſt Favour of Heaven was a Calm, which enabled us to ſupport ourſelves with leſs Difficulty. We had now for two Nights beheld the Ship in Flames, and were in additional Danger from the Fire of our Artillery, which went off as ſoon as it was heated by the Flames. We had no News of the two Boats which firſt of all left us, nor any Signal from thoſe who were on different Pieces of the Wreck. I myſelf ſaw the Death of ſeventeen of thoſe who were with me.

At laſt, on Tueſday the 23d of September, ſome of my People diſcovered in the Night, by the Light of the Moon, a ſmall Veſſel, which did not ſeem to perceive us. We cried for Help, but could not make ourſelves be heard. Then two of the Sailors left their Hold, and tried to reach the Veſſel by ſwimming. Finding their Strength not ſufficient for this, they ſupported themſelves on the Top-ſail-yard, and rowed with their Hands. By this Means they came up to the Ship, which was an Engliſh one, and had the Happineſs to find the People ready to give them all Aſſiſtance in their Power.

Captain Thomas Hubbert, who was the Commander, immediately ſent out his Boat, and about Nine in the Morning, being about ſix or ſeven Leagues of Cape de Moulin, I was received on board the Engliſh Veſſel with all poſſible Humanity. We were then nineteen in Number. The Captain firſt gave me a Glaſs of Wine, but I was able to ſwallow only a few Drops, and thoſe with Difficulty. It was then offered to M. Fauquette, a young Man of a good Conſtitution, the Son of M. de Brue, but as he was lifting it to his Mouth he was ſeized with Convulſions, bit and broke the Glaſs with his Teeth, and fell down dead at our Feet.

The Engliſh Captain arrived at Marſeilles on the 30th of September, with the eighteen Men, Capt. Gayet having been put aſhore very ill; but there are hopes of his Recovery. And we are informed by a Letter from Geſſoa, that eleven other Perſons, who belonged to the Modeſte, have been brought into that Port by a Dutch Ship, who fell in with them on her Paſſage.

Paris, Nov 7. The Affair of the Manilla Ranſom is not yet ſettled. The Engliſh Miniſtry, it is ſaid, will allow no more than 1,500,000 Piaſtres, by Way of Satisfaction for the Plunder committed after the Town had capitulated, and refuſes to refer to the Judgment of the King of Pruſſia, whom the Spaniſh Miniſtry propoſes as Mediator.

Hamburgh, Nov. 4. There have been exported lately from hence to the Mediterranean, 120,000 Quarters of Wheat and Rye: And Oats are beginning to be ſhipped for England.

Peterſburg, Sept. 26. By Order of the Empreſs, the new Treaty of Commerce concluded between this Court and that of Great-Britain is juſt publiſhed in the Ruſſian and French Languages.

LONDON, Nov. 11.

Saturday laſt ſome Diſpatches were received from Sir William Johnſon in America, whoſe Arrival here is ſoon expected, in order to lay before the Miniſtry a Plan of great Importance for the Benefit of the Colonies.

Private Letters mention, that an extraordinary Courier had been diſpatched to Corſica, with Orders for the French General, Count de Marbeuf, to obſerve no longer a Neutrality with the Malcontents.

Yeſterday Lord Camden took the Oaths, and his Seat as Lord Chancellor. "At the ſame Time the Dukes of Cumberland, Northumberland, and Montague, with Earl Chatham, took the Oaths, and their Seats in the House of Peers.

Yesterday when his Majesty went to the Parliament House he was greatly Huzza'd, and at the End of each Huzza, God bless the King and down with the Bread. When he entered Parliament-Street, a Quartern Loaf stuck upon a Pole covered with Crape, was carried by the Side of the State Coach to Old Palace-yard, and back again.

Letters from Naples mention, Accounts have been received there from Constantinople, that a late Shock of an Earthquake had done considerable Damage in the Island of Lemnos.

His Danish Majesty has issued an Edict, dated the 11th past, by which all his Subjects are strictly forbid to embrace the Roman Catholick Religion, and the Jesuits to remain in his Majesty's Territories.

It is said the first Payment of the Manilla Ransom, will be remitted hither from Cadix, by the 15th of November next.

In a few Days will begin to be struck at the Tower, fifty Tons of Halfpence, for the Use of the City and Colony of New-York.

The Wild Boar, which lately attacked the French King, as he was Hunting near Campeigne, tore out the Bowels of his Horse with his Tusks; But his Majesty having luckily a spare Horse near him, he got upon it with great Agility, and putting the Beast immediately to full Speed, thus escaped the Fury of the enraged Animal.

It is talked, that Part of our most southerly Possessions, on the Continent of North-America, will be ceded to the King of Denmark for a valuable Consideration.

Last Thursday, about One o'Clock in the Afternoon, two Fellows, one of whom seemed to be a Countryman, fell to playing Pitch and Toss near the New Church in the Strand: The Countryman won all the other Fellow's Money, who (like a true Gamester) ventured his Coat, Waistcoat, Hat, and Shirt, in order to recover it back, but he lost all, and was obliged to go home stark naked; his Cloaths were sold upon the Spot to a Jew, who got a dead Pennyworth of them. The Countryman would have given him his Shirt, had it not been for his ill-manners.

We are informed there will be no Opposition in Parliament the next Session, but that a Coalition of Parties has already taken Place; and that the D. of B——d, Earl T——pie, Mr. G—— G——, &c. &c. have given their Word to assist in all Measures for the Public Good: That the Relief of the Poor is to be their first Object; and that the Business of the Nation is to be executed upon an entire new Plan, from which we may expect the most salutary Effects.

They write from Paris, that it was computed the Settlement and Fortifying the Island of Hispaniola, would cost the Crown of France Twenty Millions of Livres.

On Tuesday last the Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, Deputy Bailiff, Chief, and other Burgesses of the City and Liberty of Westminster, waited on his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, to thank him for his Goodness and Generosity, in accommodating them and the other public Bodies of that City and Liberty with so commodious a Place as the New Guildhall, to transact the Public Business in: And at the same Time made their Compliments of Congratulation to his Grace on the high Dignity his Majesty has been lately pleased to confer on him. His Grace received them in the most obliging Manner, and entertained them with an elegant Collation of the choicest Fruits, Wines, and other Refreshments.

The two Gentlemen who fought the Duel lately at Paris, immediately after they were seemingly reconciled by the Marshal de Biron, are sentenced by the Tribunal of Marshals of France only to suffer a Year and a Day's Imprisonment; so that the Charge of Assassination which was at first talked of, is supposed to have had no Foundation.

Richmond, in Surry, August 27. The following is a true Account of the horrid Murder committed by Richard Mihill, on his Brother Robert Mihill, both Sons of a Baker in this Town.

About a Month ago Richard Mihill, was under some Difficulty to pay a small Debt, for which a Writ was made out against him, and delivered to two of the Officers of Kingston Court, who went on Richmond, in Order to arrest the Defendant; but he judging their Business, retreated, with a Pistol in his Hand, and with Oaths and Imprecations, threatened to shoot the first Man that should endeavour to take hold of him; the Officers did not execute the Process, but went and applied to his Mother, to see what she would do; who willingly paid the Demand of the Officers, to extricate him from that Trouble, as she had often done before on other Occasions. Notwithstanding this Indulgence, the unhappy Man wanted some more Money, and with a Knife in his Hand, threatened to cut his Mother's Throat, if she refused to supply him, who was thereupon obliged so to do. This Affair reaching the Ear of his Brother, the unfortunate Deceased, he told his Mother, she might work for ever to no Purpose and all the Care he, the Deceased, could take, would be of little Avail, if she would give Way to relieving the Prisoner with Money every Time he would apply. Something of this being told Richard, he publicly declared he would be revenged on his Brother Robert, who, very worthily, had the Care and Management of the Business of a Baker, for his Father, who is much advanced in Years. The above Declaration of Richard being told to Robert, and being advised to swear the Peace against Richard, he did so, and got a Warrant to apprehend him; but alas! the usual good Nature of the worthy unhappy Deceased, induced him a Day or two after, to go to the Officer who had the Warrant, and desire him to give it up; alleging, he believed it was only Passion in the Prisoner to drop those Words; that he was his Brother, and should it be executed he must be committed to Goal, where in all likelihood, he might long remain for want of Bail, which he could not bear a Thought of, and therefore desired to forgive him; and upon which the Warrant was given up, and a Day or two after, the Deceased met his most wretched, wicked Brother, and generously accosted him thus; "Dick, I am not afraid to meet you, though you have publicly threatened my Life; you are my Brother, I never did you Wrong, therefore conclude you mean me no Harm; I had got a Warrant against you, which I now destroy; I am no more than a Journeyman to my Father, there is all the Money in my Pocket; and gave the Prisoner Seven Shillings:" The ungrateful Wretch's Return for this Kindness was, the next Time he saw the Deceased, which was on Saturday the 23d Instant, coming with some Potatoes in his Apron into the Shop, the Prisoner, without speaking a Word, with a Case Knife struck the Deceased across his Wrist, and cut his Arteries, and stabbed him in the Breast; which Wound would not have been mortal, according to the Surgeon's Account, but the bloody Villain made a second Stab, which reached the main Artery of the Heart; on which the Deceased endeavoured to cross the Way to Mr. Strudwick's, a worthy good Surgeon, and a Friend to the Deceased, but he could reach no further, than the Post at the Door, which he hung by with his Hands until he dropped Speechless, and expired. The Maid heard the Villain say, as he ran through the Shop, damn him I have done for him; and as she had heard Words often pass between the Brothers, she suspected something had happened, and immediately went to the Door, where she saw the Deceased weltering in his Blood; upon which a Hue and Cry was made, and the Delinquent taken and brought before Sir William Richardson, Knt. where he prevaricated much, sometimes confessing, and at others denying the Fact: However he was committed by Sir William, and detained the same Afternoon, by Charles Jemmet, Esq; Coroner for the Town and Hundred of Kingston, for the wilful Murder of his Brother Robert Mihill.

P. S. A younger Brother is now confined at Richmond, for threatening to set Fire to the House of Mr. Mihill, senior, because he was not admitted as Heir at Law into the House and Trade. (The Father is since dead.)

BOSTON, December 29.

We have Advice from Surrinam, That on the 21st of October they had as severe a Shock of an Earthquake, as had been known at that Island.

Last Monday Joseph Andrews, alias Anderson, on an Information of being one of the Villains that murdered Capt. Duryee, and all the People on board (one excepted) as mentioned in the Deposition of William Harris, at St. Kitt's, [which was Publish'd in the MARYLAND GAZETTE, N°. 1106,] was apprehended in this Town, and immediately carried before a Magistrate, who, after a close Examination, committed him to Goal. —He shewed great Signs of Guilt on his being first apprehended; but denied before the Justice of being concerned in the Piracy and Murder above-mentioned.—He arrived at Casco-Bay in a Vessel from St. Eustatia, some Time ago, from which Place he took a Passage on board a Coasting Sloop for this Town, where he had been six Weeks the Day he was taken.—Two Days after he arrived here, he cut off his Hair, in order 'tis thought to prevent his being known.——Many of Captain Duryee's Things were found on him and in his Chest, particularly a Medal which he wore round his Neck, and several Shirts mark'd with the two Letters of the Captain's Christian and Surname.—He had been flush of Money ever since his Arrival, and a considerable Sum in Gold was found on him when he was seized. The new Stone Goal not being quite finished, he was, by Habeas Corpus, removed on Wednesday last, under a strong Guard, to Charlestown; and 'tis hoped this Enemy to Mankind will in a short Time receive his just Deserts.

NEW-YORK, January 8.

On the 19th of December, at the Court of Oyer and Terminer, in Sussex County, New-Jersey, Robert Ray was burnt in the Hand for Manslaughter, and Robert Seamour was tried for the Murder of an Indian Man of the Oneida Nation. The Evidence against him was, his Behaviour to the Indian before they went together from the House; his being possessed of the Indian's Gun and Goods; Proof that he broke the Back and Legs of the dead Body, and buried it; that he confessed the Murder to some Witnesses, and declared he would destroy any Indian that came in his Way. He challeng'd several of the Jury, denied the Fact, and said he bought the Goods found on him, of a Sailor; the Jury brought him in guilty; he appear'd undaunted, and seem'd to expect a Rescue, but there was not the least Appearance that any was intended; the Audience, which was very numerous, seem'd unanimously to approve the Verdict. He was remanded to Prison, which was guarded that Night with 25 of the Militia. Next Morning he was brought to the Bar, and sentenced to be executed between Three and Four that Afternoon, at which Time he was accordingly brought out, strongly guarded by Detachments from the adjacent Companies of Militia: He appear'd dismayed at the Gallows; made a short Prayer, declared he lived a very wicked Life, and was Guilty of the Fact for which he was to suffer: He was then executed.

An Indian of Note, of the Oneida Nation, had with some Difficulty been prevail'd upon to attend the Trial, from first to last, he was respectfully treated, and appeared highly satisfied with the Justice of the Proceeding, which he said he should represent to his Brethren.

ANNAPOLIS, January 22.

On Sunday Morning, the 4th Instant, being a Rainy Sleety Time, one William Woodward, a Lad of about Fifteen, Son to Francis Woodward of Rock-Creek in Frederick County, carrying a Log of Wood on his Shoulder to lay on the Fire, his Feet slipp'd, just as he came to the Threshold, and he fell on his Back, and the Log on his Face and Breast; his little Sister holding the Door, cry'd out, on which the Father ran out and took him up, finding him with the Blood gushing out at his Mouth, Nose, and Ears. He was perceiv'd once to move his Hand and Neck, and Died in about an Hour, without a Struggle.

SCHEME OF THE MARYLAND LIBERTY LOTTERY.

THE Lower Houſe of Aſſembly of Maryland have conſtantly and ineffectually hitherto, ſince Seventeen Hundred and Thirty-nine, RESOLVED, That his Lordſhip hath no Right to collect Twelve-pence per Hogſhead on Tobacco exported.

A Conſtitutional Tax on the People to ſupport an Agent of the Appointment of the Lower Houſe, has been greatly deſired, frequently attempted, and as often refuſed by the Upper Houſe.

The Lower Houſe of Aſſembly contend, That the Clerk of the Council his reaſonable Reward, as well as every other Expence neceſſarily attending the Execution of the Powers of Government, ought to be defrayed out of the Fines, Forfeitures, Amerciaments, and other Monies received by the Government for the Support thereof; and, "That Sentiment being directly oppoſite to the Opinion the Upper "Houſe had, on mature Conſideration, formed upon the "Subject of the Clerk of the Council's Claim," principally occaſioned the Non-payment of the Public Debt for upwards of Ten Years: The Diſtreſs of Trade for Want of a Circulating Medium, and the extreme Neceſſity of Public Creditors, compelled the Lower Houſe to agree to an Appeal to his Majeſty in Council, on the Subject Matter of Difference, without the Allotment of any Public Money for that Purpoſe, as the only Means to ſettle Diſputes, reſtore Public Credit, and lay a firm Foundation for the future Eaſe and Good of the Province.

A Subſcription therefore, by RESOLVE of the Lower Houſe, has been Open'd, and Subſcriptions are taken in by every Member, for maintaining an Agent, and ſupporting the Appeal on the Part of the People, as well as obtaining Redreſs of their other Grievances; and, by RESOLVE alſo of the Lower Houſe, as an additional Means of raiſing Money for the ſame Purpoſes, the following SCHEME of a LOTTERY, by which to raiſe One Thouſand Pounds Common Money, is ſubmitted to the Public.
